

Competitive Targeting and Selling

A workshop for intact sales teams that ensures that all territory managers/sales representatives have identified their top targets where competitors have high share; then know how to approach the account in the highest value manner to unseat the high share competitor.

Course length is usually 2 days including video tape practice.